

Total product (TP) also called Total Output (TO) is the Total number of units produced by a given number of workers

Average product (AP) is the output produced by one worker on average

Marginal product (MP) is the increase in output observed each time a worker is hired

Three Measures of Labor Productivity

Three Measures of Labor Productivity

Total product (TP) also called Total Output (TO) is the Total number of units produced by a given number of workers

Average product (AP) is the output produced by one worker on average

Marginal product (MP) is the increase in output observed each time a worker is hired