

Capital Goods

Manufactured factor of production used to produce other goods...

Examples: factories, buildings, trucks, tools,
machinery, and equipment.

Included

Included

Capital Goods

Manufactured factor of production used to produce other goods...

Examples: factories, buildings, trucks, tools,
machinery, and equipment.

What distinguishes a Capital good from an Intermediate good is that after selling the final good, the producer still has the depreciated capital good while intermediate goods went entirely into the production of the Final Good