

LearnstoFarmers

DO

So

$1.5

40

20

$2

6

0

$0.5

$

1

D₁

If the price in the market falls below $2, the farmer forfeits the grain and does not repay the loan

$2.5

If the price in the market rises above $2, farmers sell their crop at the higher price and repay the loan.

Government loan= Production x $2(support price)

Loans to Farmers

If the price in the market falls below $2, the farmer forfeits the grain and does not repay the loan.
If the price in the market rises above $2, farmers sell their crop at the higher price and repay the loan.

Effect of Price Supports