

[REDACTED]

Fixed Costs: Do not change with Q

$$FC = 140,000$$

Q

=

5

0

0

02 = 1000,000

$140,000

$$FC = 140,000$$

FC = 140,000

Fixed Costs

The background features a collage of financial documents. At the top, a check is partially visible with a yellow 'VOID' watermark. Below it, an insurance policy document is shown with the word 'Insurance' in large blue letters. At the bottom, a property tax bill is visible with the words 'Property Taxes' in large blue letters. The entire collage is tilted diagonally.

Insurance
Property Taxes

Interest Payments

Ma

$140,000

FE

The fixed cost is the same whether we produce a lot
or zero units

Fixed Costs: Do not change with Q

Fixed Costs

$140,000

Insurance

Secretaries

Interest Payments

Property Taxes

