

All workers earn the same wage: say $10/day

Additional workers allow others to become more productive as they concentrate on fewer tasks and the output added increase with each additional worker hired

All workers earn the same wage: say $10/day

Additional workers allow others to become more productive as they concentrate on fewer tasks and the output added increase with each additional worker hired