

A worker is “Underemployed” when her/his skills, education or training are not used in the work s/he does:

✦ A computer scientist who drives a taxi because s/he can't find work as a scientist

◆ A philosopher who works as a waiter because s/he can't find work as a philosopher

To be classified as Employed a person must have worked at least one hour or more for pay or profit

Underemployed individuals are counted as Employed even though their skills are not employed

Underemployed individuals should be counted as Unemployed because their skills are not employed

Underemployed individuals should be counted as Unemployed because their skills are not employed

A worker is “Underemployed” when her/his skills, education or training are not used in the work s/he does:

- ♦ A computer scientist who drives a taxi because s/he can't find work as a scientist
- ♦ A philosopher who works as a waiter because s/he can't find work as a philosopher

Underemployed individuals are counted as Employed even though their skills are not employed