

Phillips Curve: represents the trade off between inflation and unemployment

Unemployment

Years of High Inflation

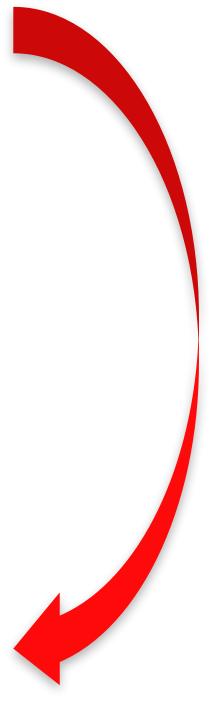

Years of Low Inflation

Are years of Low Unemployment

Are years of high Unemployment

To reduce inflation by 1%, unemployment must increase 2% above the natural rate

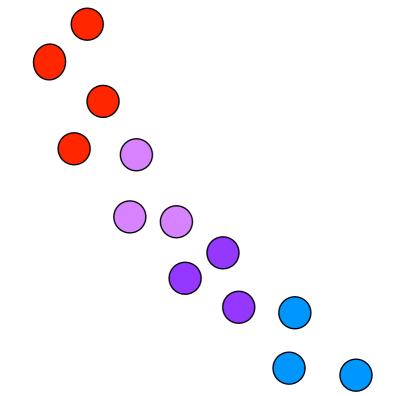

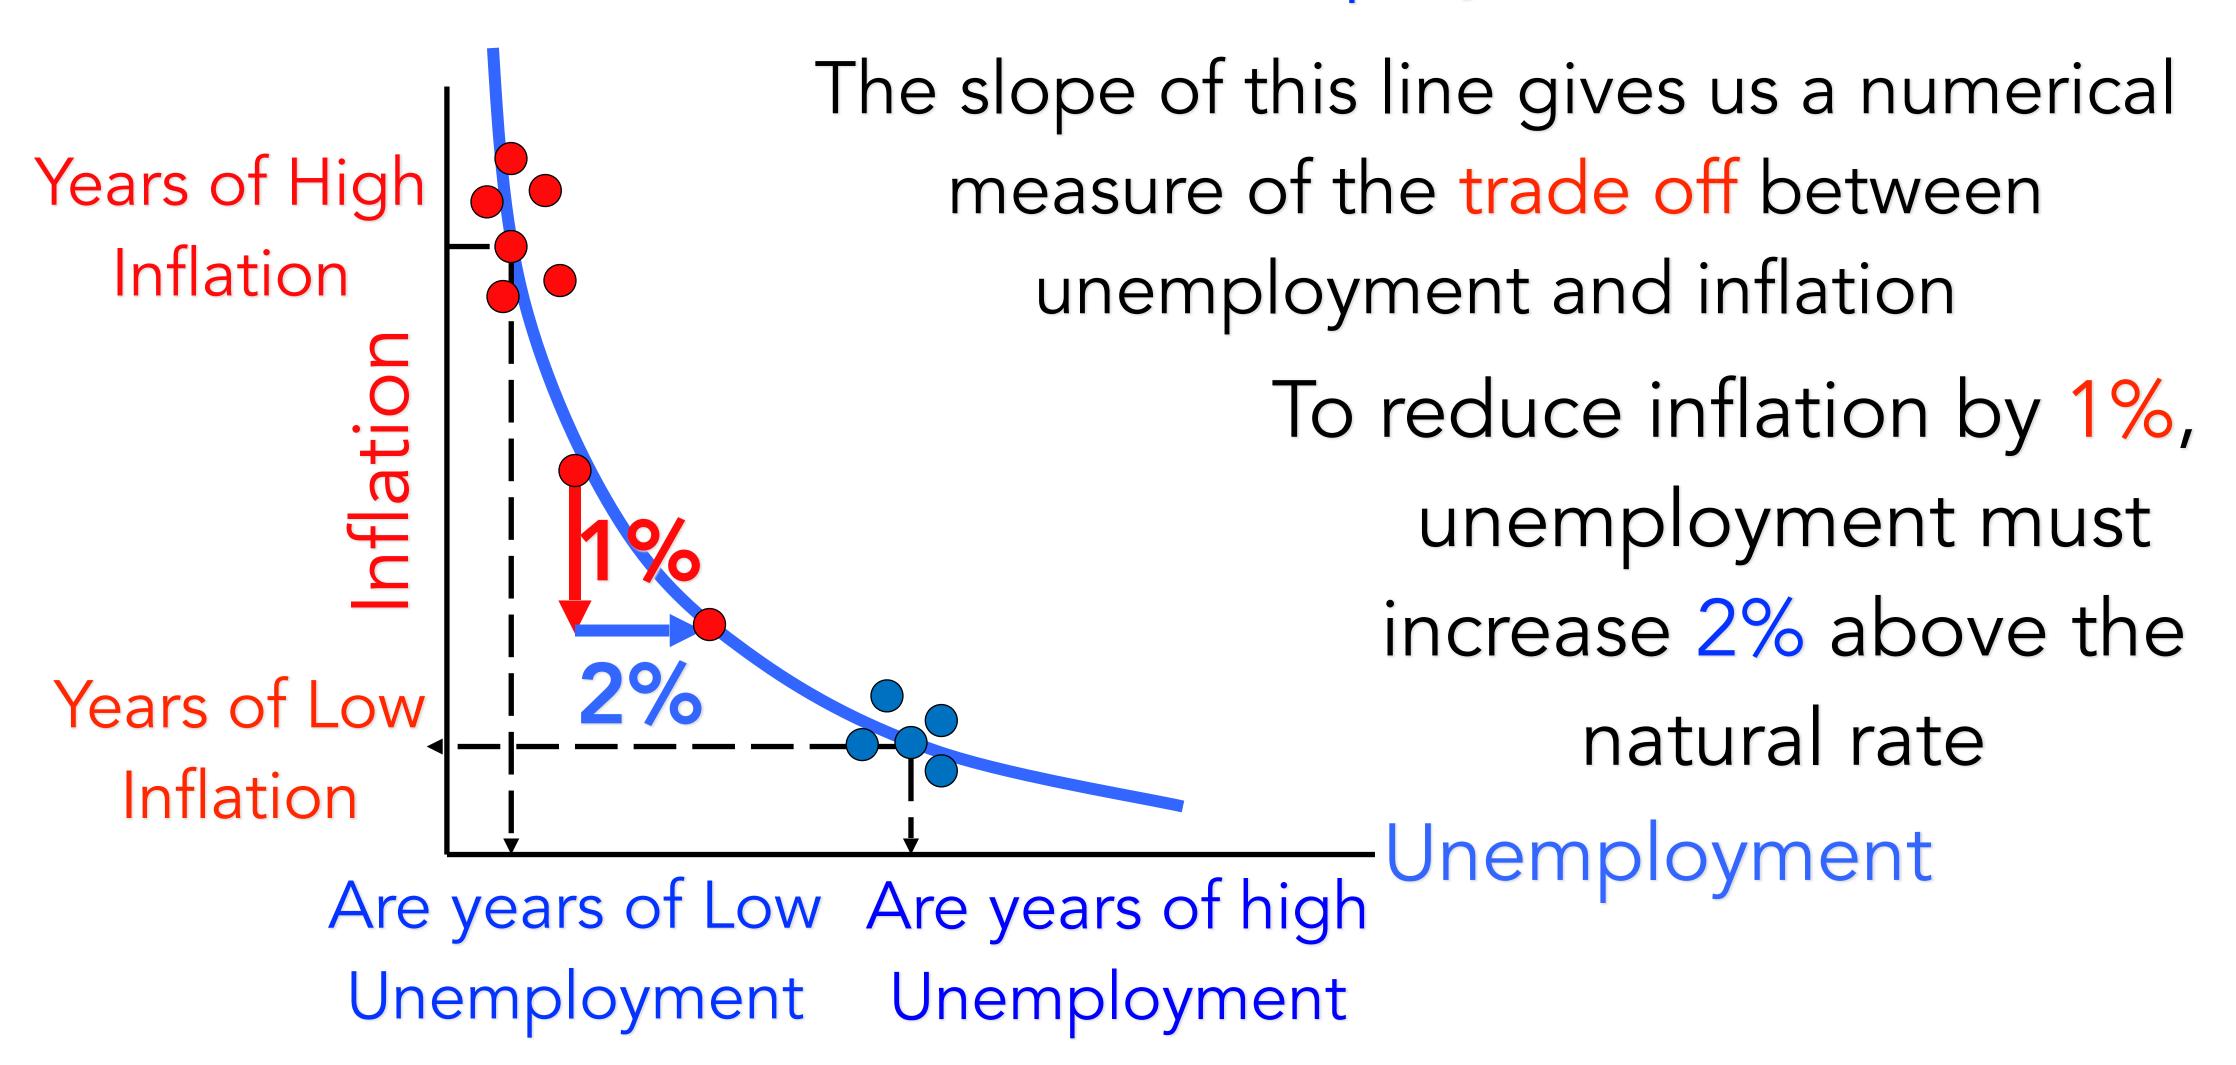

The slope of this line gives us a numerical measure of the trade off between unemployment and inflation

Phillips Curve: represents the trade off between inflation and unemployment

Unemployment Rate 2019

